We pretty much felt hearts break around the globe when Gwen Stefani announced her divorce (<http://www.pixable.com/article/gwen-stefani-divorce-13572>) from Gavin Rossdale back in August. I mean, they were married for 13 years which is an ETERNITY in Hollywood. It's just not something we ever saw coming from those two.

But Gwen has shown she's moving on, apparently with "The Voice" co-star Blake Shelton (<http://www.pixable.com/article-tag/blake-shelton>). The two copped to a romance earlier this month, and it's actually pretty cute. Gwen was pretty private about her marriage to Gavin, so their public appearances are a bit surprising.

Here they are, flaunting their luuuurve on Twitter back in October:

Hi @blakeshelton @NBCTheVoice gx

3:41 PM - 26 Oct 2015

Gwen stopped by “The Ellen DeGeneres Show \(http://www.people.com/article/gwen-stefani-says-she-is-having-fun-with-blake-shelton\),” airing later today, and Ellen tried her hardest to get the No Doubt singer to discuss her romance with the country crooner. Gwen played pretty coy, but did have this to say: “I’m in a good place. I’m having a lot of fun. It’s like a whole new life, a whole new chapter. It’s been so great to be on ‘The Voice’ and be around all that music.”

And of course it must be great to be around Blake. “I didn’t even know who he was before I was on the show,” Gwen admitted, laughing. “Before I was on ‘The Voice’ I had never heard of him before. I didn’t, I hadn’t. I’m an O.C. girl, what would I know?”

Ellen asked if Blake is a good kisser, and Gwen had no comment. But based on how happy she looks (she is seriously RADIANT — wish they could bottle that glow up and sell it!), it’s safe to say he probably is.

Ah, new love.
