PRODUCT: Dove Nutritive Therapy Nourishing Oil Care Daily Conditioner

Damaged and stressed locks begone. BITB has a bargain solution for hair that has suffered from over drying or dying, heated styling and just plain abuse. Dove's Nutritive Therapy Nourishing Oil Care Daily Treatment Conditioner is a deep conditioner that will give hair a lift while it restores shine and softness. It takes damaged strands from their breaking point to their most healthy and vibrant.

Case in point: after using the treatment for about two weeks, I noticed my hair seemed thicker and lusher than it had ever been, and my suspicions were confirmed when a friend of mine said "Your hair looks SO good. Are you doing anything new to it?"

Not to brag, but I knew my hair looked good, even though on this particular day we had torrential rain and wind and I had forgotten an umbrella. This conditioner has two things going for it: a white stripe, which contains conditioner that seals hair cuticles to lock in nutrients and smooth frizz, and a gold stripe that has weightless nutri-oils to deeply nourish and replenish essential nutrients. I'm very picky about what I put in my hair for fear of that greasy, weighed-down with flatness look, and this deep conditioner does exactly the opposite: the nutri-oils smooth hair and keep volume intact.

Dove's Nutritive Therapy Nourishing Oil Care Daily Treatment Conditioner is perfect for daily use. Get great hair at a great price at drugstores everywhere for around $6.
