PRODUCT: SUAVE DRY SHAMPOO SPRAY

The idea of washing my hair every day makes me want to cry. Honestly, nothing sounds worse. That's why I'm thanking my lucky stars for Suave Professionals Dry Shampoo Spray. Who wants to deal with the hassle of blow drying, straightening, and perfecting every strand of hair every single day?

No matter what kind of hair you have, styling is undoubtedly time-consuming. Most of us barely have time to stop and think in the mornings, let alone time to create gorgeous works of art on our frazzled heads. A few years ago, this little phenomenon called dry shampoo entered my consciousness. Suave's Dry Shampoo is like a miracle worker. You just spray or rub it on dry hair, and suddenly all the grease and oil disappears and smooth, pretty locks emerge. It's perfect for after the gym, before a night out, or anytime in between.

The Suave Professionals Dry Shampoo Spray has mineral clay which binds to hair to refresh and lift it. Just a quick spray on top of the head is all you need, and suddenly drab strands become fab tresses. It smells peachy and leaves my hair looking freshly washed, even if it's not.

The best part about Suave's Dry Shampoo might just be the price. A 5 oz. bottle can be bought at drugstore.com for just $3.49. So step away from the shower and put down the blow dryer, and thank me later!
