Anytime I hear “Yeah” by Usher, I’m instantly brought back to the era in which it was released. It was a simpler time, really: it was just a fun song to dance to at sweet sixteen parties and put up on your MySpace page. And it has a great beat and hilarious lyrics (“Ludacris feel cups like double d’s..” I mean..) — you can admit it, when it comes on Pandora or satellite radio in your car (or however it is kids these days get music) after a long time of not hearing it, you shamelessly bust out your best “LUDAAAA!”. I won’t judge you — I do it too.

So that's all the more reason why this video of Joseph Gordon-Levitt, actor/filmmaker/producer extraordinaire, ahem, "performing" the jam with his killer moves for an upcoming holiday special of Spike's "Lip Sync Battle" is so, so perfect.

It's everything we need on this rainy Thursday.

Sorry if what I'm about to say is NSFW, but watching JGL lip sync about "milking the cow" is making me feel some kinda way. Clearly, he wants a lady in the street but a freak in the bed. No worries, JGL: I'm sure there are more than enough ladies willing to sign up for that.
